Workforce Development
NCTM

Benjamin Magill, CEcD
Vice Chancellor, Economic Opportunity
Dallas College

Tatianna Yale
Chief Investment & Planning Officer
Texas Medical Center

Texas' reputation for a business-friendly climate, available real estate, and top-notch life sciences research makes it a frequent site selection prospect for biopharmaceutical manufacturing. This session will bring together economic development stakeholders, workforce development experts, and biopharma companies with a presence in Texas to discuss what's working, what's not, and opportunities we should collectively explore to raise Texas' reputation as a leading state for biopharmaceutical manufacturing.

COMMERCIALIZATION

FDA Hot Topics

Bobbi Drais, MS, RAC
President & Principal Consultant
Drais Regulatory Consulting, LLC

Trey Putnam, PhD, RAC
Vice President, Regulatory Affairs and Quality Assurance
Osteal Therapeutics

Sarah Thompson Schick
Senior Associate
Hogan Lovells

The FDA has many initiatives and priorities that impact the biotech industry. Join BioNTX at the 2022 iC<sup>3</sup> Life Science Summit to learn more about today's hottest FDA topics from our regulatory and legal experts.
